Bordeaux

Château TEYSSIER Vignonet

Jonathan Maltus has transformed St-Émilion Grand Cru Château Teyssier into one of the most sought-after wines of the appellation with riper fruit and well-controlled élevage. As well as the St-Emilion Grand Cru wines, there is a weighty but still fresh Sémillon-based white which is only entitled to the lowly Bordeaux AC since no white wines are permitted in the St-Emilion appellation. Along with Teyssier, Jonathan has extended the range in both directions, including some first class generic wines under the Pezat label.

"Since purchasing the estate in 1994, Jonathan and Lyn Maltus have raised the quality of Château Teyssier to rival that of the Crus Classés" (Oz Clarke & Steven Spurrier's Fine Wine Guide)

Ref.	Red wines	Vintage	Case size	Bottle	Case
PEZ405	BORDEAUX SUPÉRIEUR "Pezat" 16/20 (Jancis Robinson MW)	2006	12x75cl	£8.30	£99.60
PEZ423	BORDEAUX SUPÉRIEUR "Pezat" 90/100 (Parker)	2009	12x75cl	£8.30	£99.60
	A wine at Grand Cru level, the Pezat vineyard is literally a pace away from the more prestigious appellation and everything is treated with same care as all the other wines produced at Teyssier. "Over-delivering" is the phrase most used by critics in reference to this seamless Merlot with a dash of Cabernet Franc.
TEY208	ST-ÉMILION GRAND CRU (OWC) Recommended (Decanter)	2007	12x75cl	£15.00	£180.00

TEY499	ST-ÉMILION GRAND CRU (OWC) 91/100 (Parker)	2010	12x75cl	£16.65	£239.88
	Along with Ausone, Teyssier was cited by "Wine Behind The Label" as a "stellar cellar" for its wines including this "soft and attractive, relatively forward, spicy St-Emilion full of fleshy, dark, plummy fruit".

Loire Valley

Chateau de l'ABBAYE Pouilly-Fumé

The magnificent new winery is just inside the Abbey castle. Here, Pascal and Patrice Morlat make their excellent Pouilly-Fumé.

ABB458	POUILLY FUME	2009	6x75cl	£10.00	£60.00
	An intense smokey nose. Very fresh and mineral with some lychee and grapefruit thrown in with good acidity but quite rounded nonetheless. Very good example.

Burgundy

Domaine JOBLOT Givry

No-one who knows Burgundy would argue with the assertion that Domaine Joblot is the greatest estate in southern Burgundy. Only the home estate of DRC's Aubert de Villaine's comes anywhere close to rivalling the wines of Jean-Marc and Vincent Joblot. It is not going too far to say that the wines made in this 14ha estate are better than many grand cru wines from the Cote d'Or. All the wines have excellent levels of concentration with impressive depth and acidity which is considered at least as important here as sugar levels.

Domaine des MALANDES Chablis

This estate delivers very high quality, typical Chablis every year it seems, no doubt due to the attention to detail in the vineyard, especially at harvest time, and non-interventionist winemaking. Classic, benchmark wines; Chardonnay at its most pure.

Beaujolais

Domaine de la MADONE and Domaine du NIAGARA Fleurie

Jean-Marc Després is one of the leading winemakers in the whole Beaujolais region. He produces classic top-flight Fleurie at the family estate situated in the picturesque hills of the "Madone" sector of the appellation, the area that is responsible for the classic elegance for which Fleurie is famous. Jean-Marc's son Arnaud is responsible for the structured, more long-lived wines from Domaine du Niagara.

Château de BEAUCASTEL Orange

A must for any Châteauneuf enthusiast. Availability and prices on application (current stocks include 2008 and 2010 along with 2010 Coudoulet de Beaucastel).

Château CAPUCINE (Christophe Coste) Saze

Raymond USSEGLIO Châteauneuf-du-Pape

Stéphane Usseglio makes rich, full wines from vines over 50 years old, consistently in the top tier of wines from the appellation since 1998. Wines tend to be more elegant than many of their peers, an important consideration when choosing wines to enjoy with food. "Cuvée Impériale" comes from vines planted in 1902 at La Crau, one of the most renowned lieu dits in the appellation.

Domaine des ANGES Mormoiron

Organic: In

Dubliner Ciarán Rooney built up an impressive CV including stints at Château Lafite-Rothschild prior to his arrival at Mormoiron. These are modern Rhône wines and the prestige selections bottled under the "L'Archange" label. The white is pure Roussanne; the red an ever-changing blend of Grenache and Syrah from the estate's oldest vines. Both see some new oak ageing.

Domaine BERNARDINS Beaumes-de-Venise

The wines from the 22 ha Domaine des Bernardins (once owned by Bernardin monks) are a step up from these, still as versatile but with more nuances, more complexity. The reason is simple: they use both white and black-skinned Muscat which gives the wine more longevity.

One of the most important estates in both Gigondas and Cairanne, established in 1947 by André Brusset, grandfather of Laurent, the current winemaker. There are two Gigondas cuvées, "Le Grand Montmirail" and the oaked "Les Hauts de Montmirail". Both are consistently amongst the finest wines to come out of the appellation each year with "Les Hauts" one of the most long-lived and powerful. "Chabriles" is a top-flight prestige cuvée from one of the leading Côtes du Rhône Villages.

This excellent Côtes du Rhône estate is managed by the dynamic, youthful Christophe Coste who manages his family's 45 ha of vines. Domaine des COTEAUX DES TRAVERS Rasteau

Organic: In

The name of Robert Charavin's 13 hectare estate means "the hillside of the rising sun". Vines averaging 40 years are cultivated traditionally without herbicides - indeed, Robert is moving the estate into biodynamics. In recent years, a little more oak has been used in the ageing of the wines although in all but the top cuvées this is apparent only in the texture, not in the flavour of the bottled wine. Domaine des Côteaux des Travers has fast become one of the appellation's leading estates.

Xavier VIGNON œnologist

Xavier is one of the leading oenologists in the Southern Rhône and Languedoc with legions of leading producers clamouring at his door (several of them on our list). In addition to this, Xavier makes his own blends, some of them with appellation status, others non-appellation proprietary blends from estates scattered around both viticulture regions.

René ROSTAING Ampuis

One of Côte Rôtie's star wine-makers, René's first vintage was in 1971 since when his landholdings have grown to 7 ha in Côte Rôtie and 1 ha in Condrieu. René's wines are considered second only to the "La La" wines of Guigal (and often better!). The elegant 2004 vintage is approachable already. Inevitably stocks of the single-vineyard cuvées are extremely limited and appear only on our fine wine list.

Michel ROCOURT Le Mesnil-sur-Oger, Côtes des Blancs

Damien Grzeszczak makes an excellent range of superb Premier and Grand Cru wines at Le Mesnil-sur-Oger in the heart of the Côte de Blancs. Pure Chardonnay – or Blanc des Blancs – and aged longer than most before release, they are therefore particularly fine with subtle aromas and soft mousses, very popular with consumers.

Languedoc & Roussillon

Mas de DAUMAS GASSAC/Moulin de GASSAC Aniane

Mas de Daumas Gassac is generally regarded as the Languedoc's greatest wine, perhaps the only truly world-class wine the region has to offer. Organically produced grapes on low yielding vines become fully ripe whilst retaining their expression of the exceptional terroir. Wines are vins de pays since the main variety used (80%) is Cabernet Sauvignon which is not permitted under AOC rules.

New to the range is "Terra", a high quality wine from mature Grenache and Syrah that is the first wine from this estate to be organically certified.

In addition to the grand vin, the family oversees a négociant operation in the valley, producing a range of wines under the Moulin de Gassac label. These are reliably good, straightforward expressions of the varietals and blends used.

Domaine TRELOAR Trouillas

Englishman Jon Hesford relocated to Roussillon after witnessing 9/11 from his home near the World Trade Center. After just a few years, he has established himself as one of the forefront producers in the Roussillon with a range of wines that impress all who try them. These wines break the mould of Roussillon winemaking. Ciel Vide is the most typical with Three Peaks a more grown-up version but One Block and Secret are almost mono-varietal wines based on Grenache and Syrah respectively and made to the very highest standard.

Domaine Rotier is another estate on the road to full organic status. Indeed, no chemical fertilizers have been used here since Alain Rotier took over the helm in 1985. In 1989 he introduced a new range, "Renaissance" which are some of the very best wines made in the appellation. The new "L'Ame" cuvée has received the highest ever ratings for a Gaillac wine.

Crissante ALESSANDRIA La Morra

Crissante Alessandria began making Barolo in 1958 from his home in the Roggeri sector in Santa Maria di La Morra. Over the years the company grew, new vineyards were bought in the best locations around La Morra and the Alessandria family started to produce differentiated Barolo Cru Roggeri and Capalot, at the same time switching to small barriques for ageing the wines. As well as some excellent Barolo, the family makes a stunning Barbera from vines nearly 100 years old.

Fabrizio BATTAGLINO Veza d'Alba

Within two years of taking over the family estate, Fabrizio had his first Tre Bicchieri award. The vineyards are planted to Nebbiolo, Barbera and Arneis in the under-valued Roero district (the "other one") and, as such represent excellent value for such superb wines, each wine revealing the winemaker's sensitivity. A particular success - and hugely popular wine - is the sweet "Bric Bastia" made from late-harvested Arneis, a rarity indeed.

Only natural treatments are used in the vineyard but, in the winery, the most advanced technology is employed to produce some of the finest wines from Piedmont's "third" district.

NADA Giuseppe Treiso

Enrico Nada has been at the helm since 2008. Treiso is one of the four Barbaresco communes, considered to produce the most fragrant Nebbiolo and Dolcetto. With the family vineyards in the highly prized Casot sector, Enrico has raised the profile of this small estate which makes some very good wines which are flamboyant and, as such, work extremely well on restaurant lists.
